Cut along the dashes. Place each card under Excellent, Good, or Needs Work — then name the rubric category it belongs to.

SCENARIO 01

“Coach arrives 15 minutes early, mitts and journals laid out, and greets each girl by name at the door.”

RUBRIC CATEGORY

EXCELLENT / GOOD / NEEDS WORK

SCENARIO 02

“Two girls are arguing. Coach says ‘knock it off or sit out,’ loudly, in front of everyone.”

RUBRIC CATEGORY

EXCELLENT / GOOD / NEEDS WORK

SCENARIO 03

“The session is fun and high-energy, but it is week 6 and the girls are still only throwing the jab they learned in week 1.”

RUBRIC CATEGORY

EXCELLENT / GOOD / NEEDS WORK

SCENARIO 04 • BENCHMARKS

“It is week 4. Coach hands a t-shirt to every girl who has attended twice, names what each one did to earn it, then tells the rest exactly what they need for week 8.”

RUBRIC CATEGORY

EXCELLENT / GOOD / NEEDS WORK

SCENARIO 05 • BENCHMARKS

“A girl earned her whole kit in the fall. In the spring her coach promises her a second t-shirt to keep her showing up.”

SCENARIO 06

“A girl puts her head down and refuses to wrap her hands. Coach tells her she can sit out the rest of the season if she is not going to try.”

RUBRIC CATEGORY

EXCELLENT / GOOD / NEEDS WORK

SCENARIO 07

“A girl is crying after a hard round. Coach kneels beside her, keeps her voice low, offers her the jump rope instead, and checks in privately at the end.”

RUBRIC CATEGORY

SCENARIO 08

“Coach knows every girl's name and the room is warm, but there is no lesson plan out and the session is invented on the spot.”

RUBRIC CATEGORY

EXCELLENT / GOOD / NEEDS WORK

SCENARIO 09

“Attendance has not been submitted for three weeks. The coach says she has it all written down at home.”

RUBRIC CATEGORY

EXCELLENT / GOOD / NEEDS WORK

SCENARIO 10

“The gym is double-booked, so coach runs the whole session in a hallway. The girls are engaged, but there is no room for footwork and two of them collide.”
